PACKERS MUST YIELD

Or the Allied Trades Unions Will Be Called Out.

PRESIDENT DONNELLY'S STATEMENT

Strikers Send a Communication to Their Former Employers Seeking a Conference—Discharge of Nonunion Men Insisted Upon—A Final Effort Made to Bring About Arbitration.

Chicago, July 19. — President Donnelly of the striking unions will send to the packers another letter asking for a conference. In this letter Mr. Donnelly will go over the history of the strike and will ask the packers if in their judgment it will not be better to concede the one point in contention than to continue the strike. One point to which allusion is made is the refusal of the packers to discharge the men they have employed since the commencement of the strike and give their places to the men who walked out. The letter to the packers will also suggest that it is the belief of the strikers that they are, as old employees, deserving of this consideration. If this offer of the union is rejected by the packers, Mr. Donnelly declared, the allied trades at the stock yards, numbering in all about 13,000 men, will be called out in an effort to bring the packers to terms. Joseph Morton of the stationary firemen's union called on the packers and notified them that unless there is a speedy settlement of the strike his men will be compelled to quit work. While no definite answer was given Mr. Morton by the packers, he was received by them in such a friendly manner that he left the conference with the belief that there is still a strong probability of peace, and the determination of Mr. Donnelly to once more open negotiations with the packers was the result of the manner in which Mr. Morton was received by them.

Watchman Fatally Assaulted.
Chicago, July 19.—Slugged into insensibility by a dozen men, Antonio Bartuslavski, an employee at the Swift packing plant, is dying at the county hospital. His injuries, in the opinion of Inspector Hunt, were inflicted by strike sympathizers and the wheels of a trolley car. The men, according to a witness who has talked to the police, set upon Bartuslavski as he was going from work. When they could not make him join the strikers they broke his skull, fractured his jaw, kicked him about the face, head and body and then threw him upon the car tracks.

To Fight Western Houses.
Philadelphia, July 19.—The Amalgamated Meat Cutters and Butcher Workmen's association has decided to fight the Philadelphia branches of the western packing houses. Richard Butler of New York, secretary and treasurer of the sheep butchers' local union No. 10, came to this city and sought to have all local independent butchers discontinue supplying the western houses with dressed meat. In return for this the union agrees to supply all the men the independent concerns might need to carry on the increased business. The prominent independents are willing to enter such an agreement.

Elks' Reunion.
Cincinnati, July 19.—The Elks have taken possession of the Queen City. It is estimated that the registration will exceed 25,000 today. The grand opening of the reunion consisted in elaborate fireworks on both sides of the Ohio river from Coney Island, 12 miles up the Ohio, to the public landing of the city. Two large steamers were chartered. The one used for members of the grand lodge with their families and friends carried over 2,000, and the other for members of the press and others about 1,000. As these steamers returned from a cruise to Coney Island the 12 Kentucky suburbs and the river front of Cincinnati and its Ohio suburbs rivaled each other in a display that really assumed the proportions of a battle of fireworks. The grand lodge opened with a public session at 10 a. m. in the Music hall. Addresses of welcome and responses and the reading of annual reports were the features of the session.

No Protest Made.
Washington, July 19.—Regarding the report that Count Casati, the Russian ambassador, presented to the state department a protest against the alleged intention of this government to dispatch a war squadron to Turkish waters to assist in the settlement of certain claims, it can be stated very positively that no such protest ever was made and that the subject was not discussed even informally by the Russian ambassador with the secretary of state.

Butchers Enjoined.
St. Louis, July 19.—The sweeping injunction issued by Judge Holder of the St. Clair county court against the striking butchers in East St. Louis, Ill., packing houses was served by Sheriff Thompson on P. Morgan and John Smith, union leaders and organizers, as well as on the presidents of the associated unions.

Millionaire Passes Away.
San Francisco, July 19.—Henry S. Crocker, pioneer stationer, millionaire, and brother of the late Charles Crocker, the railroad magnate, died here, aged 72 years.

Earthquakes in Ecuador.
Guayaquil, Ecuador, July 19.—Two long, heavy earthquake shocks were felt here Monday.

PREPARATIONS COMPLETE FOR THE OHIO STATE FAIR

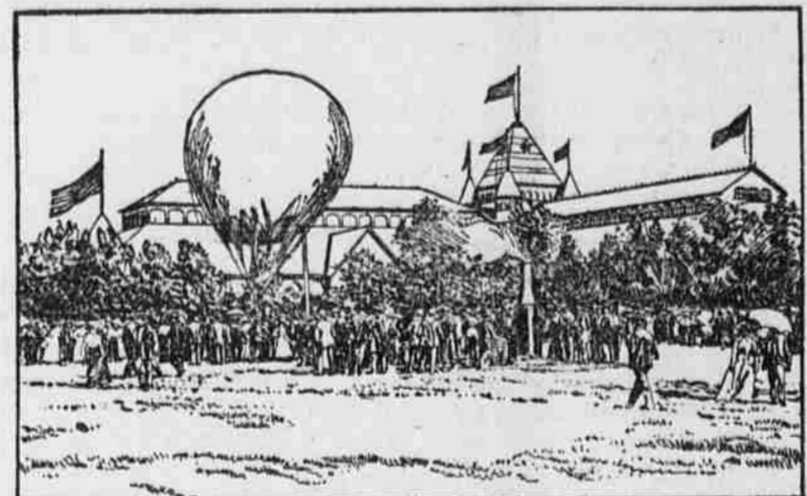

TO BE HELD AT COLUMBUS AUG. 27, 30, 31, SEPT. 1, 2.

Exhibits Are Assured For a Great Industrial Exposition, Spread Out In the Fifteen Large Buildings, Equipped For Each Department and Every Class.

The Beautiful Grounds a Delight to the Eye and a Popular Pleasure Resort For All—The Conveniences of the Fair Greater Than Ever and the Attractions Unlimited—The People of Ohio Looking Forward to the Great Event and Other States Will Be Interested and Are Sure to be Attracted.

The rapid growth and successful annual exhibitions of the Ohio State Fair, especially the past few years; the broadening of its general scope and the good results following the seasons of annual exhibition, are well known by all the people of the State and quite generally known and acknowledged throughout the United States. The reputation of the Ohio State Fair as a great industrial exposition is so firmly established that producers, manufacturers and dealers of the best and latest in every class seek the advantages to be gained by exhibiting at the Fair, and each succeeding year many new names, new firms and new establishments are added to the extensive list of exhibitors. In consequence of this con-of things that tend toward progress in industrial and social life. The advantages of the Ohio State Fair, so admirably located at Columbus, the geographical center of the State, with so many and such perfect exhibition buildings, are so appreciated that exhibitors vie with each other in seeking the advantages, and each year the enthusiasm becomes more intense and the competition greater. This has Ohio builded up a vast industrial exposition, to which people are annually invited and never disappointed. The occasion is one that is looked forward to and prepared for months in advance; an occasion that not only illustrates the work and progress of a busy people and a great State, but one that affords a pleasant stantly increasing interest and demand on the part of exhibitors, the facilities of the Fair have been more than doubled within the past few years, notwithstanding which, enlargements and additions are required each year to meet the urgent demands pressed upon the Fair management. The Ohio State Fair grounds are beautiful and attractive in every respect; a delightful park resort, supplied with every convenience possible to be provided for public comfort and recreational pleasure. Unlike new grounds, for new or temporary exhibitions, there is nothing incomplete or in a chaotic state. The lawns are old and well set; trees are of great growth and line the various avenues, furnishing an abundance of shade between the points of interest and leading to the numerous great exhibition buildings and departments of the Fair. Shaded reserves are also in abundance and sweet smelling flowering shrubbery dot the banks, islands and projections of attractive lakes and fancy water courses. No city park or established pleasure resort is more inviting than the Ohio State Fair ground park at Columbus. The highest development has been attained and is maintained in all the beauty that nature and art affords.

As to exhibition building capacity, no comparison can be drawn with any other fair. The Ohio State Fair grounds are provided with a greater number, a finer style of architecture and a larger capacity than are to be found on any other grounds for like purposes. The excellent exhibition conveniences for each of the fifteen distinct departments of the Fair, enables exhibitors to display their products and manufactures in correctly classified form and to the best possible advantage for public inspection, thus deriving all the benefits and profits for which the exhibits are made, while the great lessons of the Fair are presented to the public in a manner not merely attractive and pleasing to the eye, but instructive in every detail; lessons that are carried broadcast, reaching in a better class of animals; the use of the latest and most economical machinery; better methods in the production of field, garden and orchard crops; higher art; greater household conveniences and hundreds make the Ohio State Fair, in every respect, a first class industrial exposition, worthy the patronage of all Ohio citizens, and that shall attract citizens from our sister states to join with us in viewing the illustrations of progress, as well as so grandly presented in the many departments, and to admire the beauty of the grounds and enjoy the many features and attractions that will be provided for each day of the Fair.

It is advised that the people prepare for this great and important event. The time and small outlay of money required to spend a day or more at the Fair can not be spent in any other manner that will bring greater returns in profit, enlightenment, pleasure and needed recreation. The forthcoming Ohio State Fair will assume the prominence of a great industrial exposition, representing more particularly the Buckeye State and her varied industries.

Sentenced to Death.
Chillicothe, O., July 18.—Alex. Guy, colored, who murdered his wife, Anna Guy, last April, was sentenced to die on Dec. 16. He made a dramatic speech to the court, in which he insisted that he is innocent.

American Disappears.
City of Mexico, July 18.—W. L. Gaines, an American partner in a pub- lishing firm, has mysteriously disappeared, and fears are felt for his safety. The business was prosperous and large contracts had been made.

Costly Fire.
Montgomery, Ala., July 18.—Fire completely destroyed the plant of the Alabama Lift Flooring company, entailing a loss of $200,000. The plant has been completed and in operation less than a year. The property covered four acres, and consisted of a planing mill, an immense lumber shed, three large dry kilns, a dust house and a boiler house. Three hundred thousand feet of dressed lumber in the sheds and 150,000 feet of rough lumber were burned. It is believed the fire was the work of an incendiary.

Grandstand Gave Way.
Cleveland, O., July 18. — Two hundred people were hurled to the ground by the collapse of a stand at Brighton Park, a suburb of this city. A ball game between amateur clubs was in progress and the stand was crowded, when, without warning, the entire crowd was thrown to the ground in a heap. Other spectators and the ball-players immediately set to work extricating the people from the wreckage, while calls were sent out for ambulances. When all were finally removed it was found that 10 persons had sustained broken arms or legs, while a number of others were otherwise bruised and cut. It is claimed that the collapse was caused by the removal of some underpinning, which had been carried off by people for firewood.

Anti-Tubercular Dispensary.
Cleveland, O., July 18. — The trustees of Western Reserve university have voted to establish an anti-tubercular dispensary in connection with the medical school. This is the second dispensary of the kind to be opened in the United States. In Germany and France the dispensary has already come to represent a most effective instrument in the crusade against tuberculosis. Co-operating with the medical faculty in the work of the dispensary are the Association of Nurses and the Associated Charities of Cleveland.

Law Invalid.
Columbus, O., July 18.—Judge Rath- mell, in common pleas court, declared unconstitutional the law which says liquor shall not be sold within 1,200 yards of the State insane hospital. The measure was special legislation. There are laws on the statute books of this kind that concern almost every individual state institution in Ohio, and under the ruling of the supreme court all of them will be declared unconstitutional if they are taken into court.
